

Internships in Chinese Food Culture

CHN 192 Internship

Number of Unit: 1 unit

Number of Hours: 3 hours/week

Instructor of Record: Michelle Yeh

Qualifications

1. Registered student at UC Davis in good academic standing
2. Interest in Chinese culture, especially Chinese food culture
3. Flexible hours
4. Ability to work with a team
5. Fluency in English
6. Valid driver's license with current insurance preferred
7. Fluency in Mandarin preferred

Responsibilities

1. To work with instructors at the Confucius Institute at UC Davis (hereafter CI) on programs related to traditional Chinese culture in general, to Chinese food culture in particular.
2. To assist with the preparation, presentation, and wrap-up of CI programs and events. Preparation may include: packing and transporting materials, setting up workstations or tables, hospitality, etc. Presentation may include: sign-in or registration, distributing handouts/forms and collecting forms, passing materials, etc. Wrap-up may include: cleanup after each event, packing and transportation, etc.
3. At the end of the quarter, submit a term paper on experiential learning to the instructor of record.

To Apply

1. Please submit, via email, a personal statement outlining your academic interests, future goals, and qualifications for the internship to:

Dr. Michelle Yeh

Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures

mmyeh@ucdavis.edu